Court of General Sessions

ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY. Fig. 19.—The first case brought on for trial this morng was that of Daniel Kane, alias Martin Flannagan, a gged looking urchin, charged with attempting to comit a burglary on the premises of William More, 23 Elm reet. The only evidence against the prisoner was that was found on the evening of the 8th of February, by seer Donahue, in a yard adjoining Mr. More's house, at gentleman having previously discovered that atmpts had been made to pics the lock of his hall door, ardict, not guilty.

obn Bross was charged with breaking into the dwell-house of Ancrew G. Pierson, of 179 West Tweatyg house of Andrew G. Pierson, of 179 West Twentystatreet on the night of the 17th of January, with an test to commit some crime therein. The complainant as awakened about one o'cleck in the morning the noise of some person opening the hall door, waited thinking possibly that it might be some of a inmates, but hearing a continued noise in the room joining that in which the slept, he started up, opened a coor, and any two men, who immediately attempte i escape. Complaintant pursued them to the street, lling "stop thief," and one of the men, while running ray, was arrested by Officer Houston, within 200 feet Mr. Pierson's door. Mr. Phillips, for the detence, connided that there was no evidence of the outer door ing broken open. The Judge charged that the jury, they found that the prisence had entered the dwelling use through an open door, but had broken open an ner door, could find a verdict of guilty of burglary in a second degree, which they accordingly did. Senmer to eight years and two months in the Station.

second degree, which they accordingly and beneec to eight years and two months in the Station.

ANOTHER EURGLARY.

John Cunningham was indicted, with one Patrick Large (who pleaded guilty), for burglariously entering the res of Bernard Riley, corner of Second street and First enue, on the night of the last of January last, and saling thence a watch and a quantity of silver coin, of e sgaregate value of $92. The burglary was proved to two been committed by larkin and another, whose pern was not recognized. The facts tending to connect e prisoner with the odence were that, when arrested the 2d of January, he admitted having been with Larson the evening previous. A quantity of silver coin the description of that stolen was also found in his assession, particularly an English shilling, identified by a complainant. Verdict of "guilty," with a recommodation to metcy. Sentenced to two years and two months in the State prison. Larkin was sentenced to respears and two months.

CHARGE OF GRAND LARCENY.

Louis Koffman was indicted for stealing a watch from schow window of Jacob Lewis, 358 Pearl street, on the of Sebruary inst. Catherms Rooney, a girl in the ploy of the complainant, testified that she saw deant coming from the window with the watch, which put in his pocket; but from various circumstances sluced in evidence by the defendant—his demeanor in store of Mr. Lewis being the very opposite of a crimal, and his previous good character proved by nurreus witnesse—the testimony of the witness for the secution was completely rebutted. Verdict of actital.

store of Mr. Lewis being the very opposite of a crimal, and his previous good character proved by nursus witnesses—the testimony of the witness for the secution was completely rebutted. Verdict of activation was considered and agreed the one side and on the argument of the case for the sener and for the people, it was conceded and agreed the one side and on the other, that the prelimina-affidavits of the complaining witnesses, which acopany the indictment, contain all the testimony an before the Grand Jury, and on which they ed in ordering these bills. I have read the comining papers with care, and it is apparent that y not only fail to exhibit proof sufficient to int. but are without any legal evidence whatever of viosition of the statute against false protences. I belong manifest, and having regard to the consistency by the learned attorney for the people—that see primary depositions contain all and precisely same facts, matters and things testified to by deponents when before the Grand Jury, and that a Grand inquest had no other evidence, knowledge information in the premises than what is expected by the affidavits fin question—this clearly or an attention of the state of facts, (given preliminarily for a ter view of the case,) the Court is moved to go behind indictments and take judicial notice of this want of of for the purpose of setting them aside; thus raising squestion, both new and important, whether a crimicourt can pass behind the record to learn if there any proof before the Grand Inquest going to estable the defendant in importing absolute verify upon face. The criminal books aford almost no authority the exercise of such a power, and I cannot find a cedent among adjudicated criminal cases either in a country or England, for so bold an entrenolment of here of the pur of the line? This, it is said, is not denied. Very od. Why, then, has not the court power to inquire or any maconduct of one or more frand Jurors, tend-to vitiate their proceedings, or of others going to the vitiate their proceedings, or of others going to the vitiate their proceedings, or of others going to the vitiate their proceedings, or of others going to the vitiate their proceedings, or of others going to the vitiate has been proved, it did not also appear that it a committed in a foreign State or country, or if pertanted within the pale of their jurisdiction, whether was not so ancient as to be without the cognizance of a criminal law, or if within, it had not been shown the testimony of a withen, it had not been shown the testimony of a withen the criminal law, or if within, it had not been shown the testimony of a withers all their of a matter? All this, it take it—certainly all except a latter matance—will not be denied by any one who a given the subject their attention. The grounds, as seems to me, for an interference by the court in cases this nature is, that the Grand Jury is wholly without thority to indict, upon the well settled principle that jurisdiction by any criminal magistracy can obtain or whom logal testimony before a duly constituted aurity; as no jurisdiction can be had of the body of a minal offence, except by reason of his personal prene before the power having cognizance of the crime. this be good law, with all the force of truth and the regist of justice, how may a Grand Jury indict any one a crime, having for want of proof no jurisdiction of the body of a minal offence, except by reason of his personal prene before the form, with the care, expense and deadation of a public trial? The answer is not that ere is any law to prevent, but that has never been new the had been deadation of a public trial? The answer is not that ere is any law to prevent his more than any law to prevent his more than any law to the care, and the care of the reals of law, and where one crime has been over t combat or criticise it for the purpose of granting this motion; but as there is so lawful evidence whatever before the Grand Jury to negative the truth of the presence alleged. I am without doubt of the power of the Court to set them aside, and am convinced of my duty in the matter. The motion to quash is granted. The District Attorney said that he would take the liberty of reviewing the case upon a writ of error. Although his views coincided with those of the Court, yet, as it was an important case, it ought to be settled by the highest Court in the State.

Theatres and Exhibitions.

Broadway Theatre.—The American tragedian, Mr. E. L. Davesport, is announced to appear this evening in "Othello." The last time be appeared in this city in the same character he was greatly admired. Mr. Parry appears as Iago; Mr. Ponis is a Desdemons, and Mrs. Abbott as Emelia. The comedy of a "Lady and Gentleman in a Peculiarly Perplexing Predicament" concludes the amusements.

Cludes the amusements.

Bowert Theatrix —The benefit of Mr. H. C. Jordan comes off to-night, when a number of talented artists have volunteered their services. The pieces selected are "Black Eyed Susan," "Pizzaro," "Family Jars," "Perfection," "Spectre Bridgeroom," "Pardy Miess Boy," and a negro entertainment. With such a bill, there can be little doubt of the house being filled.

BURTON'S THRATEE.—Three favorite pieces are selected for this evening. The new production, "Where shall I Dine," is the first in order.—Mr. Jordan as Sponge, and Miss A. Lee as Durothes. The farce of the "Filibuster," with Burton as John Jacobs, will follow, and the comedy of "Sweethearts and Wives" will conclude the enter tainments.

WALLACK'S THRATEE.—A very attractive bill is an

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MONEY MARKET.

MONDAY, Feb. 19-6 P. M. The stock market was depressed at the opening this morning. Erie and Harlem Railroad stocks were in active demand. The former sold at lower, and the latter at higher prices, than those current and the latter at higher prices, than those current at the close on Saturday. They are at present the most active fancies on the list. The transactions are principally on time, pretty equally divided be-tween seller's and buyer's option. The other fancies are comparatively quiet, without much change in prices. Virginia sixes continue to be offered froely, and speculative transactions are made to some extent. Railroad bonds have not been so active within the past day or two. Prices are not so firm. The supply of this class of securities appears to be unlimited. A great effort has lately been made to inflate their market value, and the delly transations for a time were quite large; but the brokers had most of this business among themselves, and failed to attract much outside aid. The stock market, on the whole, has about reached its maximum point. Quotations must either fall off, or the operations become very much reduced. Stagnation or depreciation must soon take place.

After the adjournment of the board, the following sales of bonds and stocks were made at auction by Tre last returns, compared with those for the week previous, show an increase of $988,854 in discounts, $214,691 in specie, and $1,399,294 in deposits. In circulation there has been a decrease of $27,505 in reached the aggregate of the corresponding date hast year, and it is now within about three and a half million of the highest point reached in 1854. The amount of specie on hand now is upwards of five millions greater than at this time last year, while the deposits are more than thirteen millions in ex ess of those for the same date in 1854. The coadition of the banks has been much improved within the past four or five months. The large deposits and amount of specie on hand show great strength and great inactivity of capital. The banks are loaded with too much dead weight, and they must soon obtain some relief. The specie on hand is several millions larger than required, and a distribution is much to be desired.
